

VOICES FROM THE EARTH INVITES YOU TO THE PREMIER OF

“VOICES OF FREEDOM: PUZZLE AT PORT ROYAL”

Port Royal, SC became the scene for a great experiment of inclusion and integration of people of African Descent in the American Democracy: 1861-1866, known as “The Port Royal Experiment.”

Puzzle at Port Royal is a new storytelling/theater piece about major turning points of the Civil War created by African American involvement.

APRIL 16, 2011 - 7 PM

FEATURED GUEST SPEAKERS:

ROBERT SMALLS

PORTRAYED BY

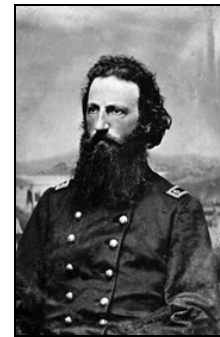

BABA JAMAL KORAM

HARRIET TUBMAN

PORTRAYED BY

ILENE EVANS

SET H ROGERS

PORTRAYED BY

ED BROWN

LUIS EMILIO

PORTRAYED BY

JOEY MADIA

FRANCES HARPER

PORTRAYED BY

SHEILA COLEMAN- CASTELLS

HISTORIAN/NARRATOR

CONNIE RICE

Events which led to active recruitment of African American men to fight in the Union Forces changed the course of the war. Men of African descent were called to fight for their own freedom, the freedom of all people of African Descent, and to re-unite the nation. Their valor and victory came in time to turn the tide in favor of the Union Army.

The Thomas Education Center 324 Brown St. Thomas, WV
304-463-4561 info@vfte.org